Beazley appoints Jenny Han as Focus Group Leader, Environmental Liability

August 26, 2025

Her promotion reflects the depth of her expertise and the strength of Beazley's internal talent.

West Hartford, CT, August 26, 2025 --Beazley, the leading specialty insurer, has announced the promotion of Jenny Han to the role of Focus Group Leader, Environmental Liability, effective immediately. Based in San Francisco, Han reports to Jerry Sullivan, Head of Professional, Environmental and Mergers & Acquisitions.

Han has accumulated 22 years of experience in the environmental insurance space. Since joining Beazley in 2014, she has been a pivotal player in the business's global Environmental Liability team, amassing extensive underwriting expertise and leadership capabilities. Before joining Beazley, Han gained experience with both international and US domestic insurers, holding senior positions, including Vice President of an Environmental Division. Before embarking on her insurance career, she spent a decade advising private sector clients as an environmental consultant.

Jerry Sullivan, said: "I've had the pleasure of working with Jenny over the years, and her deep understanding of the challenges our brokers and clients face makes her exceptionally well placed to drive our strategy forward. Environmental Liability insurance is an essential tool for businesses navigating today's complex environmental risk landscape, and Jenny's expertise will continue to be a significant asset to our global team as we support businesses through expert-led solutions."

Jenny Han said: "Having been part of the team for over a decade, I know the depth and breadth of my colleagues' talent. And I'm excited to be leading them, working together to build on our successes and further strengthen our global proposition.”
