Beazley, a leading provider of specialist management liability insurance, has appointed Edward Fedak as a healthcare management liability underwriter servicing the Southeast region. He will be based in Beazley's Atlanta office.

Beazley combines its healthcare and management liability expertise to offer healthcare organizations risk management solutions specific to their industry. Beazley's healthcare management liability coverage protects against directors' and officers' risks, antitrust risks, regulatory billing errors and omissions, employment practices liability risks, and fiduciary liability risks.

Fedak joins Beazley from Hiscox where he built a profitable book of management liability business. Prior to that, he worked for AIG in their Management Liability Group.

"Beazley continues to build out our management liability offerings across the key insurance hubs in the United States to address client needs and service our broker partners," said Kelly Webster, Beazley's healthcare management liability focus group leader. "Ed's experience and successful track record working with brokers in the Southeast region is a major addition to our team."
