Beazley strengthens US management liability team

New York, June 27, 2017

Beazley, a leading provider of specialist management liability insurance, has expanded its team focused on US management liability risks with the appointment of underwriter Jason Lowney.

Mr Lowney will be based in Beazley's New York office and report to Jeremie Saada, Beazley's head of US management liability. He joins Beazley from Nationwide Insurance, where he led the development of Nationwide's management liability business as director of commercial D&O. Previously, he held positions at Hartford Financial Products and AIG.
