Beazley ranks as one of the world's leading marine insurers, with a highly experienced global team that participates in the insurance of approximately 20% of the world's ocean-going tonnage.

Our US group, based in New York and Houston, Texas, underwrites a nationwide portfolio of predominantly brown water hull and marine liability risks. We can write risks on a non admitted basis for the account of our Lloyd's syndicates or on an admitted basis for the account of our US insurance company, Beazley Insurance Company, Inc. Both are rated A by A.M. Best.

Coverage for hull and liability risks is available on both a primary and excess basis.

Marine hull

We provide competitive quotes for hull and machinery insurance, builders risk, port risks, subsea risks and cover for financial institutions associated with the maritime industry.

We aim to offer unrivalled speed and excellence in our technical and claims service. Customized policies and programs are available to suit individual requirements.

Limits available

- $5,000,000

Marine liability

We offer marine liability coverage to the marine, marine construction and transport sectors. Our offering comprises a broad spectrum of coverages which include protection and indemnity, terminal/port operators, ship repairers' liability, charterers' liability, contractual and excess liabilities and other associated risks.

Limits available

- $25,000,000
