U.S. based multinational corporations face tough decisions as they evaluate coverage and exposure for directors and officers abroad. Wherever Lloyd's is licensed, Beazley Bridge offers a unique solution to protect the personal assets of directors and officers outside the U.S. via a Side A "Difference in Conditions" (DIC) coverage written by Beazley on behalf of Lloyd's syndicates 623/2623.

Beazley Bridge may be offered by endorsement to:

- Beazley Armour, Lead Side A/DIC form
- Excess Side A policies
- Excess ABC policies

Key Benefits

A straight answer to a complex problem:

- One contract (a Lloyd's Global Contract)
- Endorsements explicitly schedule the countries to which the coverage applies
- One language (English)
- One invoice (for U.S. placed accounts, Beazley administers all taxes/fees where permissible by local law)
- No policy issuance fees
- Experienced claims service

Coverage Triggers
