

Beazley Subsea Leviathan

Pioneering cover for subsea equipment.

Beazley Subsea Leviathan

Beazley Leviathan has pioneered the emergence of the subsea equipment insurance market. As the subsea industry has itself grown, we continue to offer bespoke and responsive cover that reflects the unique and evolving needs of the sector. Including:

- Following many years of a close working partnership, Leviathan became part of the Beazley Group in 2016 bringing with it additional security and access to greater resources
- In-house claims management with dedicated expertise
- Easier access to underwriters through a larger team which is available both “at the box” and in the office
- International network of Beazley offices
- Complementary lines of cover underwritten by Beazley.

What we insure

Beazley Leviathan underwrites equipment and hulls involved in all subsea activity “over the side” or “topside” whilst:

- Being deployed and recovered
- Operating
- On board vessels or rigs
- In transit to and from operations, by road, rail, air or sea
- At home base
- During maintenance
- In storage.
