Important notice

Before commencement of any insurance policy, the Proposer is required to make a fair presentation of the risk in accordance with the Insurance Act 2015.

The Proposer must disclose all material circumstances which the Proposer knows or ought to know or, failing that, has given us, Beazley the Insurer, sufficient information to put a prudent insurer on notice that it needs to make further enquiries for the purpose of revealing those material circumstances. If there is a fraudulent or intentional breach of the duty of disclosure, the Proposer may receive nothing from the policy.

A material circumstance is one which would influence a prudent insurer's judgement of the risk.

If the Proposer has any questions regarding the duty to make a fair presentation of the risk then please contact your broker for further information.

Declaration

It is declared that the Proposer has made a fair presentation of the risk. This declaration is signed by the director or officer who is responsible for arranging insurance on behalf of the Proposer.
