

Timeline

This isn't the time to learn on the job – an effective incident response is a complicated process. It involves a carefully coordinated set of decisions. With a Beazley Breach Response (BBR) policy, our breach response experts – who have helped clients handle over 7,000 data and cyber breaches – will be with you every step of the way.

1. Purchase

Your organisation purchases a BBR policy, giving you access to Beazley's dedicated team of cyber breach professionals who assist at every stage of incident investigation and breach response.

A potential breach occurs

2. Notify

Notify BBR Services of the potential breach or incident by email or telephone. Notification email and telephone number can be found in your information pack.

3. Mobilise

A BBR Services manager quickly connects with you to provide practical guidance and help you select expert breach response counsel and forensics, if needed, to investigate the incident.

5. Coordinate

BBR Services works with your team and the providers to finalise notification lists and draft notification letters, call centre FAQs, and regulatory notifications.

4. Guidance

With expert breach response guidance, you decide on how to proceed in managing the incident, if notification is required, consider credit or identity monitoring solutions, and prepare for public & regulatory inquiries.

6. Monitoring

Affected individuals receive their notification letters and may enroll in offered monitoring services.

7. Reports

You get progress reports on mailings and credit monitoring enrolment. Your BBR Services manager stays in close contact throughout the process.

The breach is handled as effectively as possible.
