

Podcast

SHE Talks - Episode 1 - Dolly Parton

March 06, 2023

Welcome to our special Women's Day podcast episode brought to you by Beazley SHE featuring Beth Diamond, Gaby Martineau, Mary-Kate Arnold and Jon Perry as they discuss the legendary country singer and songwriter, Dolly Parton.

In this episode, our hosts dive deep into Dolly's life and career, exploring her journey to becoming one of the most beloved figures in music and pop culture. From her humble beginnings in rural Tennessee to her rise to superstardom, we explore the factors that shaped Dolly's unique persona and the impact she's had on generations of women.

Our hosts discuss Dolly's music, from classic hits like "Jolene" and "9 to 5" to her more recent collaborations with artists like Miley Cyrus and Katy Perry. They also explore Dolly's philanthropic efforts, including her Imagination Library program, which provides free books to children in need.

Throughout the episode, Beth, Mary-Kate, Jon Perry, and Gaby reflect on Dolly's enduring legacy as a feminist icon and trailblazer for women in the entertainment industry. They also share personal anecdotes and insights into how Dolly has influenced their own lives and careers.

Join us for this engaging and inspiring conversation about one of the most influential women in music history, Dolly Parton.

Beazley SHE supports Successful, High Potential, Empowered women in Insurance. This means supporting women internally and externally within the industry and providing opportunities for personal and professional development. The network is open to everyone, regardless of gender, across the business.

