Beazley appoints Sundeep Khera as Head of Marine

April 27, 2026

Beazley, the leading specialty insurer, has announced the appointment of Sundeep Khera as Head of Marine, effective 21st April 2026. As part of the Marine, Accident & Political (MAP) Risks team, Khera will lead the Marine, Energy, Aviation and Space teams, reporting to Tim Turner, Group Head of MAP Risks.

A recognised leader in the London market, Khera brings 30 years' experience in the marine sector. He joins from AXA XL, where he was Global Chief Underwriting Officer for Marine Hull & War and Head of Marine and Energy UK & Lloyd's. During his tenure, he led the development of innovative products, including the market's first carbon credit solution for marine hull.

Prior to his insurance career, Khera held senior roles at Emirates Shipping Line across shipping operations, stowage planning, commercial and general management. He is also a qualified Master Mariner.

Tim Turner, Group Head of MAP Risks, said: "Beazley has long been a leader in the marine insurance market. Sundeep's breadth of expertise, from major offshore energy projects to emerging technologies such as nuclear-powered vessels, brings exactly the leadership we need to continue growing our marine and transition offering."
